

Do you enjoy singing? Do you sing in a choir? Would you like help evening out your sound, improving your breathing and tone quality, and understanding more about the music you are singing? These courses could be just what you need.

The day-courses can be attended singly or as a progressive series. Each day will be spent working on exercises and techniques to help you improve your singing, and learning songs. There is a maximum of 15 singers and the learning will be done in a relaxed atmosphere. The class is open to singers of any ability and it is not necessary to be able to read music. There will be an opportunity to perform a solo if you wish.

Although topics may be repeated from previous years the material and approach is different for each day so, if you wish to recap a topic, you will not repeat the same day.

The Performance Workshop is the culmination of the day-courses but is open to all. There are only 10 places (there is a £5 surcharge) and you will spend the day performing and working on a solo you have prepared previously. This will be recorded on CD for you to take home. We will finish the day with an informal concert which will also be recorded on CD. All CD recordings are for personal use only.

Much of the learning will involve singing as a class but there will be the opportunity to perform a solo if you wish, please prepare and bring a song with you if you would like to do this.
